Thanks and Thoughts

From a Wife in Texas: I received a letter for me and our daughter to receive a prayer shawl. Yes, we would like to have one. Thank you.

From a Mother in Nebraska: Thank you for your kind gift. Prayer is very healing and I look forward to having this to have special time to talk to God and our son. Thank you and God bless you all for this kindness during our darkest days.

From a Brother in Washington: Thank you for your help.

From a Wife in Ohio: We also have two children who would like a prayer shawl as well. Their names are Gabriel who is 4 and Zoe who is 1. Thank you.

From a Father in Nebraska: Thank you and God's blessing to you all and your families for this wonderful ministry you are providing to us.

Ohio Friends and Family

When you walk in the door and see someone crocheting a prayer shawl, you know you're home. Robin enjoyed a wonderful Rest and Rekindle retreat at the Transfiguration Spirituality Center (<http://www.ctretreats.org>) in Glendale, Ohio.

Prayer shawls are available in the pews and in quiet areas of the Retreat Center.

The center is close to her sister's home, making a great opportunity for visiting and knitting.
