Prayer Shawls for Fallen Soldiers

a network of needle crafters ministering to families of the fallen. Since 2006, volunteers have given 8,107 handmade prayer shawls

A Shawl in Time

From a Wife in California:

Thank you so very much for the BEAUTIFUL shawls for my son, Kade, and myself. Today was an especially hard day and when that came in the mail, it truly brought a smile to my face. God Bless you and your beautiful work. Thank you for your continued prayers during this time. This is Kade and the Prayer Shawl that was gifted today. Thank you again.

Thanks and Thoughts

From a Father in New Mexico:

Thank you for the beautiful throw/shawl. It was a kind, comforting gift! Our 4 month old granddaughter likes to be wrapped in it too. Thank you.

From a Mother in Arizona:

Thank you for your support.

From a Father in Ohio: On behalf of my family, Thank you for this opportunity in receiving this prayer shawl from your organization.

From a Mother in Illinois: This is such a beautiful gesture for us hurting mothers and father and on behalf of my beautiful son, I THANK YOU!

From a Father in New Mexico:

Thank you for taking the time and effort to contact us and offer such a gift. People like you bring a bright spot to a horrible time in our life. Thank you for your service.

From the Parents in Louisiana: Thank you so very much!

From a Wife in Tennessee: Thank you, 1st I want to say what y'all do is so great. My daughter is 8 months old and no she don't have a favorite color but her daddy loved putting pink on her and his favorite color was blue.

PS4FS on the Road

We had a wonderful visit with our newest partner-providers at Shallowford Road Presbyterian Church earlier this month. It was a great time of knitting, crocheting, discussing patterns, sharing stories, fellowship and FEASTING.

Let the pleasure of the Lord our God be on us:

O Lord, give strength to the work of our hands.

*Psalms
90:17 BBE*
