Prayer Shawls for Fallen Soldiers

a network of needle crafters
ministering to families of the fallen. Since 2006
volunteers have given
8,220 handmade prayer shawls.

Thanks & Thoughts

From a Mother who received a Prayer Shawl at Dover Air Force Base: I don't remember if I thanked you for your beautiful shawl. I have it on my favorite chair - use it all the time. Love it and thank you so much it means so much the prayers and support. God is my support through all of you.

From a Wife in Oklahoma: Thank you for reaching out to us during this difficult time that is very kind of you all.

Stitching & Serving

Since our last newsletter, shawls have been shared with families of these service members:

From a Mother in Kentucky: I received a letter from you about a prayer shawl. I would Love one. I appreciate all you do for the families of fallen service members.

From a Daughter in North Dakota: This is so thoughtful. Thank you so much!

From a Mother in Arizona: I would like to thank you for the offering of the shawl for the remembrance of my son and I would love to have one if possible

From a Mother in Texas: Thank you for what you do.

From a Wife in South Carolina: Hi, I received a letter in the mail about the prayer shawl for my kids and I. We would love that. This is so kind. Thank you.

From a Mother in Kentucky: Thank you for contacting me & your kindness. My 19 year old son recently passed on. He was serving active duty at fort Campbell. I would like to receive a prayer shawl. Prayer is what it's getting our family through this time.

Hope to see YOU!

We're driving north to the 20th Annual Shawl Ministry

Gathering at St. Patrick-St. Anthony Franciscan Center for Urban Ministry in Hartford on Saturday, November 3. On our way, we plan to stop for a visit with Friends of the Fallen at Dover Air Force Base. We hope to share highlights of the trip in the next Shawletter.

Let the pleasure of the Lord our God be on us: O Lord, give strength to the work of our hands.
