Prayer Shawls for Fallen Soldiers

a network of needle crafters ministering to families of the fallen. Since 2006, volunteers have given 8,480 handmade prayer shawls.

Thanks and Thoughts

From a Mother in California: I received your letter for prayer shawls for fallen soldiers and it warmed my heart. We recently lost our son Robert, but we call him Bobby Always. I would really love a beautiful shawl to remember my baby boy.

From a Daughter in Texas: Thank you and may God bless you.

From a Mother in Idaho: Thank you so much.

From a Wife and Daughter in Texas:
Thank you very much.

Shawl Ministry Gathering November 2 Hartford

Lamberts will be on the road! We hope to see many of you at St. Patrick-St. Anthony Church for the Shawl Ministry Gathering. This is always a great day of stitching, fellowship and prayer.

For registration information:

Between home and Hartford, we plan to visit family in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Connecticut. We appreciate your prayers for safe travels.

Media Spotlight

We appreciate the opportunity to share the Prayer Shawls for Fallen Soldiers story in Guideposts magazine online edition. Your care for military families makes this ministry possible. Click on the link to read the article:

More Thanks and Thoughts

From a Mother in California:
Thank you.

From a Family in Alabama: Thank you so much for the beautiful prayer shawls. Each of the different color schemes of the shawls appealed to the members of our family uniquely. Without labels or suggestions we instantly knew whose was whose. God has blessed us through your kindness.

*Let the pleasure of the Lord
our God be on us:*

O Lord, give strength to the work of our hands.
