Prayer Shawls for Families of Servicemembers

a network of needle crafters ministering to families of the fallen. Since 2006
volunteers have given 8,712 handmade prayer shawls.

Thanks & Thoughts

From a Mother in Oregon: My daughter PFC Veronica Banda, an ARMY soldier in Washington State, passed away on May 20, 2018. I received this letter in mail about the Prayer Shawls for me. I would love one. My daughter is almost 2 years gone, and the pain is coming back more. I appreciate all you do for the families of fallen Service Members. God Bless.

From a Wife in Missouri: Thank you for helping myself along with others in this journey that is so hard to find peace in. God Bless you and your family.

From a Mother in New Hampshire: I received my shawl and it's beautiful, it brings me comfort while I am sitting and remembering my beautiful son, I am so grateful for such kind and caring people in this world, it would be hard without all of you. Thank You and God Bless.
