Prayer Shawls for Families of Servicemembers

A network of needlecrafters
ministering to families of the fallen
Since 2006, volunteers have given
8,895 handmade prayer shawls

THANK YOU

We appreciate everyone who responded to the request for Friends of the Fallen, our partners at Dover Air Force Base. We are blessed by so many willing hearts and talented crafters!

If you haven't yet, please mail by October 15.

What does your generosity look like? A stack of shawls for Friends of the Fallen!

Thanks And Thoughts

From a Wife in Utah: We received a letter from this amazing organization for me my daughter and my son. We would be honored to have that opportunity.

From Parents in Kentucky: We would like to receive a prayer shawl. Thank you!

From a Mother in Utah: Hello good evening, I would like to thank you all for reaching out to me this is a very difficult time right now I lost my only son and oldest child his name is Daniel A Hawkins SSG. I am his Mom this is so hard and he leaves behind his 2 kids ages 5/6 even a niece age 5 that he help care for he was like a father to her. She lost her dad at the age 3 months. Thank you so much again.

From a Daughter in New Mexico: Thank you so much for the beautiful Prayer Shawl you made! It has been one of my greatest sources of comfort. My father was such a kind man with 26 years of service in the US Army. I know he would be touched by this gesture, as well as your hard work. Thank you so much for this gift and your service. Hopefully one day I can return the favor to someone else in need as you have done with me. (Sent directly to the Prayer Shawl provider, who kindly shared it with us.)
